TASTING NOTES The most elegant wine of the trio, closely resembling a lovely Bordeaux. Deep black and purple-tinged color, with subtle aromas of cassis, black pepper and black licorice. The silky and elegant palate displays cocoa nibs, supple dark fruits, light American oak, and a hint of red raspberry, tar and light tannins on the finish. This wine would pair beautifully with a meal of equal stature, say a beef-wellington or a crown rack of lamb.
